Fifty-Seventh Year

Canyon, Texas Wednesday, May 21, 1952

Postoffice Goes Up to First Class on July 1

It will be a first class postoffice in Canyon on and after July 1. This scale was reached when the annual receipts went above the $40,000 mark. As a matter of fact the receipts were $43,405 for the past year.

The increase in standing of the postoffice will cost the patrons some more cash. Take the box rent fee as an example:

Boxes which formerly rented at 60 cents per quarter will be increased to 75 cents.

Boxes which rented for 75 cents will go to $1.00.

The boxes in the $1.00 class will be boosted to $1.50 per quarter. The large boxes, now renting for $1.50, will be $2.00 starting July 1st.

There may be other changes in the postal rates, but so far the local force will concentrate on the box rent increases. It is not anticipated that any of the present boxholders will give up their boxes because of the increased rates. There have been no boxes for rent for two or three years, with a long waiting list of patrons who are anxious to get the boxes.

Postmaster Guy Harp states that there is no one in the present force who fully anticipates the changes which are likely to take place because of the increased rating of the office. Congress has been messing with the appropriation bill for the department, but so far has failed to pass an adequate bill to pay the expenses of the department.

Milton Morris District Head Of Lions Clubs

MILTON (Buff) MORRIS

Buff Morris was elected District Governor of the Lions Clubs in District 2-T-1 at El Paso Tuesday without opposition. Mr. Morris is secretary of the Ex-Student Association of West Texas State College and is in charge of the men's dormitories on the campus.

The convention at El Paso voted to meet in Borger next year.

Two important conventions that Governor Morris will attend is the State Convention to be held at Brownsville on June 8, 9, 10 and Lions International to convene in Mexico City on June 20.

The name of Morris was entered in the race at the last minute last year when the district convention was held at Hereford. His fine showing in their race, together with his great record as a member of the Lions Club won for him the office of District Governor this year without opposition. A number of members of the Canyon Lions Club, headed by President Emmitt Smith, attended the convention at El Paso, returning home Tuesday night.

Lt. Fuqua Visits G. W. Webb Home

Second Lieutenant C. M. Fuqua, Jr. was a visitor in the home of G. W. Webb last week. Fuqua, who is a member of the United States Air Force, is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Webb.

During World War II Lt. Fuqua saw action in the European Theater of operation. Three times his plane was shot down and each time Fuqua managed to make his way back to the safety of friendly forces.

Recently Fuqua returned from serving three years in Germany. Back in the States he was ordered to Los Angeles where he has been engaged in radar work during the past eight months. The Lieutenant was on leave while visiting here. When his leave expires he will report to Omaha, Nebr., for additional radar work. When that phase of his work is finished he will go to Casa Blanca, North Africa, for duty.

Mercury Dropped Near 50 Degrees With Sprinkle

Canyon failed to receive moisture from the cold wave which hit the Panhandle over the week end, but it sure did receive the effects of cold.

Before the cold wave hit, the temperature had been ranging up to the 90 degree mark but it dropped to 42 degrees above zero Sunday morning.

Clouds hovered over the Plains country throughout most of this period and dropped a little moisture at intervals. The best that we could get here in Canyon was a trace of moisture as the result of the clouds and cold.

Over 200 People Attend Annual F. F. A. Banquet

More than 200 members and guests were present at the 15th annual Parent-Son banquet of the Canyon F. F. A. Tuesday night, May 13. Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. M. R. Calliham, professor of agriculture at West Texas State College.

Other highlights of the program were the presentation of honorary Future Farmers of America membership in the Canyon Chapter to Richmond Hales, Ted Kelly, and Harley Burrus. Roy Byrd, Jr. and Joe N. Byrd were also to receive honorary membership but were not present for the ceremonies; and the introduction of the F. F. A. Sweetheart.

Toastmaster Donnie Stroup carried the program on smoothly by keeping the evening's events constantly in progress toward the climax. Jimmy Cornette gave the invocation and the opening ceremony was done by chapter officers who explained their duties in the organization.

The welcoming address was given by Tommy Myers and the response was given by E. M. Myers. Tom Wright introduced Shirley Erwin, the F. F. A. Sweetheart, and Raymond Henders introduced the guests of the evening.

Donald McDonald, A. C. Wimberly, Dick Dawdy, Jerry Downing, and Steve McKee sang several songs in the barbershop melody fashion. Ray Burrus followed the quintet with highlights of the year.

The brief speech by Dr. Calliham explained the importance of agriculture and the work of such an organization as the FFA. He mentioned the ever present factors of drought and wind which menace crops in this area. In addition to these discouraging factors, Calliham told the damage caused by insects. He offset these discouraging factors by explaining the great satisfaction of improving farm methods and watching the crops grow.

Yarborough In Opening Speech For Governor

Ralph Yarborough, attorney of Austin, made his opening speech for Governor of Texas Monday night. Announcement of his speech was carried in many newspapers, but came too late for last week's issue of The Canyon News.

Yarborough made the race for attorney general a few years ago. His speech was largely an attack on the administration of Governor Allan Shivers, who is a candidate for re-election.

Help of Everyone Asked in Fix-up Paint-up Drive

One of the most worthwhile campaigns for any town is now in progress here. It's clean-up, paint-up, fix-up time and this means beautifying the town by making it attractive to outsiders.

The city held its clean-up campaign several weeks ago but Dudley Bayne, city secretary, announced that his department would be glad to work with the Chamber of Commerce in this paint-up, fix-up campaign. Trash and refuse gathered and placed where one of the city trucks can get it will be picked up by city workers and carried to the city dumping grounds. Four trucks are now being used by the city in order to provide adequate service in getting the trash and refuse carried off.

This particular drive to get things cleaned up, painted up and fixed up is being promoted by members of the Chamber of Commerce who ask that all business firms and individuals co-operate in the drive. It is more than a campaign to make things more attractive, it is also a health measure.

Weeds growing on vacant lots should be cut and raked. The city's two spraying machines are kept busy keeping alleys and other spots that need disinfectant sprayed. This is one of the defenses to help prevent the summer time spread of polio.

A spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce said, "Things can be better if everyone cooperates in the clean-up, paint-up, fix-up campaign. This is our town and our responsibility to keep it clean as well as healthful."

Diminutive Calf Nursed to Health By Young Girls

Today a small white faced bull calf that was deserted by his mother romps healthily in the back yard of Mrs. E. A. Berry, 1101 7th Ave. The loving hands of two little girls, Jeannie Carol Pettigrew, 7, and Judy Ann Pettigrew, 5, granddaughters of Mrs. Berry, nursed the tiny white faced calf to health.

Two great obstacles were overcome to keep the calf alive and restore his health. These obstacles were: desertion by the mother cow and a seige of calf diphtheria. The girls named the calf Snowball and there was a time when the veterinarian did not believe the little fellow could survive.

Snowball was an unusually small calf at birth. Desertion is a serious thing for a calf because the mother cow's milk contains a substance which starts the digestive system of the young calf working. So, besides being small, Snowball never had an opportunity to form a normal and healthy digestive system. Then to make matters worse he came down with calf diphtheria.

A veterinarian was called but he gave the girls little encouragement although he did everything he could to save Snowball. Jeannie Carol and Judy Ann kept feeding and doctoring Snowball with the kind of loving care that only little girls can give. Their efforts were finally rewarded by a favorable response. After the danger of calf diphtheria was over and the digestive system was properly functioning, his diet formula was changed to a milk substitute.

One of the recent accomplishments of the two girls is teaching Snowball to eat from a pan. Although the calf is less than six weeks old his health now appears to be perfect. He romps in the back yard with Jeannie Carol and Judy Ann like a large Collie dog. He heeds their scoldings and answers their call as though realizing that he owes his life to the young hands that nursed him when his mother had deserted him.

Final Rites for T. J. Prichard Held Thursday

Funeral services for Thomas Jefferson Prichard were conducted at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, May 15, in the Methodist Church. Rev. Herschel L. Thurston, pastor, officiated at the final rites of the 100 year old pioneer.

Prichard, who was a retired farmer, has been in the vicinity of Canyon for the last 50 years. He was born in Tennessee on Nov. 6, 1851. He was a member of the Canyon Methodist Church at the time of his death.

The deceased is survived by six sons: R. E., Emmett, Ernest and Houston, of Canyon; Gus of Roby, and Solon of Friona. There are also 34 grandchildren, 45 great grandchildren and four great great grandchildren.

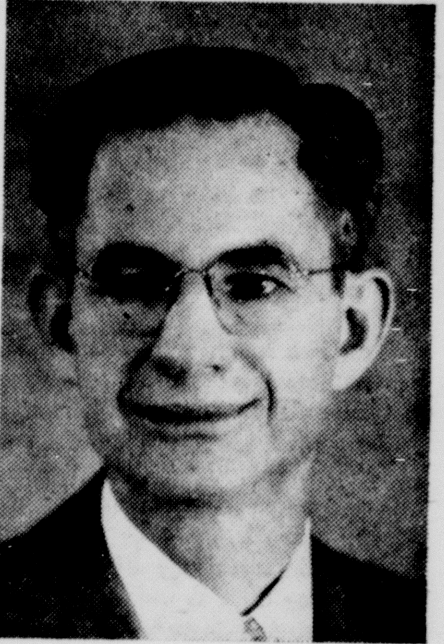

Pall bearers were chosen from the grandsons and interment was in Canyon's Dreamland Cemetery.

Guests in the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Weldon Butler are Rev. and Mrs. J. Clifton Sprouls and family of Los Alamos, N. M.

Large Crowd Attended West Texas Motor Fete

There was a big crowd at the formal opening of the West Texas Motor Co. plant Friday and Saturday when Buran Scott, owner of the business, invited Randall County citizens to come in and view the new Fords, together with an inspection of the plant.

Pictures of the evening appear on another page of this issue of The Canyon News.

When the drawing took place at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the following names were drawn:

Erdman Novel Is Given Authentic Illustrations

Loula Grace Erdman's latest novel, "The Wind Blows Free," is currently being serialized in "American Girl" magazine. The novel, which has not been released in book form as yet, has many illustrations which were made from actual pictures.

Many of the people of this area will find these illustrations interestingly familiar. The illustrations depict ranch headquarters, dugouts and other places where famous pioneers of this region first settled.

One illustration that most folks will probably find interesting is the 1893 scene of Amarillo's Polk Street.

Mrs. R. W. Woolsey of Corpus Christi is visiting in the parental R. L. Grigsby home.

Officials Attend Court in Farwell

Law enforcement officials of the city and county were present at Farwell Monday morning when the Farmer County Court convened at 10 o'clock in the morning. Randall county officers were present as witnesses for the state in a case where two boys were charged with stealing batteries from irrigation motor pumps. They were arrested in Canyon on March 26 with eight batteries in their possession.

The jury panel was made up of 60 men and 59 answered the roll call. Judge E. A. Bills excused one man from jury duty because he had not lived in the state the required 12 months.

Events moved like clock work, reported the Randall County men. One case was quickly dismissed and the local theft case was considered. The two defendants entered a plea of guilty and waived a trial by jury. The judge then dismissed the jury for the present, subject to a later call.

After the jury was dismissed, the judge turned his attention to the two boys and the stolen battery indictments of which the boys were charged on three counts. They were sentenced to one year each on each count, the sentences running concurrently. The court was then adjourned.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Let the People Know Where and How the Money Is Being Spent

There has been considerable discussion in the past on the merits of publishing financial statements of tax gathering agencies. In Texas the only body which is required by law to publish quarterly statements is the Commissioners Court. This condensed statement shows the people how much money has been collected; and how much has been spent during the three month's period, but gives no other information of value.

Several years ago the Commissioners Court of Randall County decided to publish monthly all checks which were issued against county funds. The Canyon News published this list of checks at a reduced rate in order that the people might see where the money was being spent.

Texas has about the most lax publication laws of any of the 48 states. There is no requirement for publishing financial statements of the city or school districts, yet these tax bodies collect large sums of money and spend their collections without giving an account to the people for money which they have collected from the people.

Brad Smith, president of the Texas Press Association spoke at the annual meeting of the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo and told of his talks with business men in other states which require that tax gathering agencies make publication of their receipts and expenditures.

He stated that he had found business people in universal approval of the plan for publishing these financial reports. "There can be no question in the minds of people about their taxes when such reports are published," was his conclusion.

Local Competition Has Never Killed a Local Business

Local competition never kills business.

When a business firm in Canyon fails, this fact may be contributed to two factors: Lack of services given by the firm; and outside competition.

We are amused ever so often to hear some one in Canyon say: "Since you have no competition here in Canyon, you may charge all that you please." Naturally this person is speaking of The Canyon News.

This is a laugh! Probably the fellow who makes this statement spends less for advertising and printing in Canyon than any other person in the community.

As a matter of record, there are about 17 printing peddlers who "make" this territory regularly. Not all of them get business here, but too many of them do get orders.

We are not crying because we do not get all of the printing there is in Canyon, but we would cherish the opportunity to serve some of the folks who think that we cannot handle their business.

Since we have no local competitor, we are not harassed by this sort of competition, but believe you me these fellows who make this territory regularly keep prices down to a bed rock in Canyon and elsewhere on the Plains.

We are not the biggest printing firm in the world, but we are the best in our class, and if given all of the printing there is to be done in Canyon we would soon be equipped with much larger facilities.

Think it over!

Legislature Will Have About 50 per cent New Faces in Session

There has been no great rush on The Canyon News office with folks expressing regret that we did not make the race for the legislature from this district. We expected no such demonstration.

The only person to mention the editorial of last week came in with this query: "You were not seriously considering the race, were you?"

As the matter now stands, practically 50% of the 150 members of the House will be new when the session convenes in January. There will be an unusually large number of new faces in the Senate.

Just what can you expect from a new group? In looking over the field of candidates we see a few classes of potential lawmakers:

1. A large number of boys who will be students in the University of Texas while members of the legislature.

2. Those who represent big corporate interests which feel that they need a friend among the lawmakers.

3. Men who are seeking to improve their political standing.

4. Men who have announced as a patriotic duty to their state.

There are too many of the first three classifications, and too few of the latter. We hope that the legislature will submit a constitutional amendment to the people for a future vote, not based upon an annual salary; but on a living per diem wage for those who work at the job while the legislature is in session.

The people have twice rejected the annual salary idea, so why submit such an amendment again?

Type Plays Funny Jokes on Those Who Mess With Type

Publishers of small weekly newspapers are often greatly embarrassed by typographical errors which creep into weekly issues.

Just imagine how puffed up we feel when we see errors which get by under the eagle eyed proof readers of the big city papers. We are not all dumb—just human beings.

Imagine, if you can, the shock which came to the Superintendent of Schools out in Los Angeles, Calif., when it was pointed out to him that two words had been misspelled on a half million report cards which had been printed and delivered to his office. In the word "language" the "a" and "u" were transposed. In the word "semester" the second "s" had been omitted.

In reporting the unfortunate errors to his school board the highly educated Supt. had left an "s" out of the word "misspelled."

Some guy with nothing else to do has figured out that there are chances for 35,000,000 possible errors in just one line of type.

It's a wonder that so few errors are made in the public print!

Successful family life depends upon the teamwork of the members of the family rather than upon individual joys.

Republicans Are Throwing Away Chance Naming President

It looks as if the Republicans are going to throw away their chances again to elect a president by playing the baby act. There seems to be a repetition of the same kind of situation as occurred when Governor Dewey became snooty and ignored the voters as he made the race against Truman and lost. No one wanted Truman! That is, none of the rank and file of voters. That infectious smile of Truman won for him the election.

Senator Taft controls the GOP machine. A woman told her experience the other day. There were 39 Republicans in the Precinct Convention at her home. When the vote was taken there were 34 votes for Eisenhower and 5 for Taft. The five Taft supporters did not go to the trouble of holding a rump convention, or to file a protest. They were outnumbered and knew it.

Among the delegates chosen to the County Convention was the woman who told us this story. She was given a few minutes to defend her position. After she had told the Taft county organization her story, she was promptly unseated; and without reason.

We are not sold on either Taft or Eisenhower, but we certainly are interested in seeing the majority win.

The same is true in the Democratic party. Truman and his forces are against the leading candidate, Kefauver, and will use the political machine to nominate some one of the Truman stripe.

That is the reason we are not going to take any pledge to support any candidate whom Truman puts up. We want to see the Democratic candidate be willing to clean up the mess Harry Truman is leaving in Washington. If the Democratic candidate bears the Truman brand, we will vote for the man who will clean house, if such a man is offered—regardless of party band.

We believe that the people are anxious and ready for a thorough house cleaning in Washington. But this clean up campaign will fizzle out if the political bosses have their way.

President Truman has thrown away his chance for a thorough house cleaning, and nothing good may be expected from this source.

Steel Strike Is in Hands of United States Supreme Court

The Supreme Court has the case of the CIO steel workers vs. the government.

The case seems to be very clear: Will the constitution of the United States allow the President to take over the steel mills in a so-called national emergency which the President himself terms as a mere police action.

On the opposing hand, the steel workers, under CIO chief Phil Murray declare that they will strike in order to win their case.

While we hate to see such a thing happen, all of us are fully aware of the dangers involved in a steel strike, but if the conditions grow steadily worse, why not allow the steel men to walk out and stay out until the labor racketeers are whipped?

There has been an increased uneasiness over the labor situation for several years.

President Truman is a tool of the laborites. The only way that strikes may be halted is for the men to go without work until they are ready to go back at a wage schedule that the steel mills can pay.

This may be the unpopular way to settle labor strikes and disputes, but it will work in the long run. Industry cannot run without labor; any more than industry can long survive without capital. There should be a better way to settle these disputes than through the expensive means of strikes.

But so long as the nation has a President wholly in the hands of the labor racketeers, we shall have no chance. The President refuses to use the powers of the Taft-Hartley law, which law was set up to meet such labor emergencies.

Barkley Loves 'em All—Yes, Especially the Labor Bosses

Vice President Alben Barkley has let it be known that he loves everyone—especially those who have a vote in the November election.

The Veep makes it clear that he is still available for the job of President. He is going to insult no one, especially the big block of voters, such as CIO steelworkers. The Veep spoke at the national convention and heard Phil Murray, president of the CIO, pour it on the steel mills for refusing to grant the pay hike which was demanded by the workers.

Of course the steel plants would be useless without the men to do the work. Likewise, the mills would never have been built without the farsightedness of the men who raised the money and have the brain power to run the plants.

The Veep shows very little consideration to the balance of the people of the nation as he encouraged the steel workers to strike for their demands. Barkley follows in the steps of the President in this instance.

Never get too excited about the human race. It's been here for a long time and it won't become excited about you.

Everywhere you go, there is some smart fellow who can tell you that the government is doing everything wrong.

You can often judge the intelligence of an individual by his, or her, gullibility in believing rumors and reports.

Never take it for granted that people understand your motives unless you have made them clear, very often.

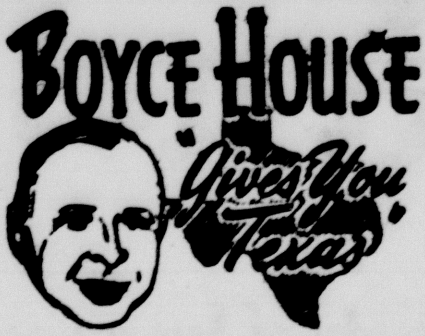

The motor vehicle death rate indicates that a man does not have to join the Army to run the risk of being killed.

Every individual requires some relaxation; the trouble is that so many people don't know how to get it.

It would be a man's world if the good ladies kept house with the same enthusiasm that they play bridge.

A free press is worthless unless journalists worship the truth, even in the reporting of incidental matters.

The installment sales plan may be fine for the seller, but it gets extremely monotonous to the buyer.

Everybody has heard of that most famous of all railroad engineers, Casey Jones, whose renown is kept alive by the old song which begins, "Come all you rounders if you want to hear, the story of a brave engineer."

Was there really such an engineer? There certainly was. Your columnist spent part of my boyhood years in Memphis, Tennessee, and talked to old-timers on the Illinois Central Railroad who knew him. In the yellowed pages of the files of the Memphis Commercial Appeal can be found, in the issue of May 1, 1900, the account of Casey Jones' death in a wreck near Vaughn, Mississippi, not long after the fast "Cannonball Express" had pulled out of the Poplar Street station with Jones at the throttle.

"Dead Under His Cab," reads the headline. The article related: The Southbound passenger train No. 1 was rushing under a full head of steam when it crashed into the rear of a caboose and three freight cars which were standing on the main track, the other portion of the train being on a side track. The caboose and two of the cars were smashed to pieces; the engine left the rails, plowed up an embankment, overturned and was completely wrecked. Casey Jones was killed outright; his body was found lying under the cab. The fireman jumped just in time to save his life. The express messenger was thrown against the side of the car and two of his ribs were broken.

The engineer had not realized the danger until within a short distance of the caboose, when he made a violent effort to put on the air brakes but the distance was not sufficient.

The Commercial Appeal account concluded: "Engineer Jones had been in the service of the Illinois Central for many years and was highly esteemed as one of the road's safest and most capable engineers. He lived at Jackson, Mississippi. . . . He leaves a wife and three children."

And so there was an engineer who, as he used to rush through the towns, would sound his own particular signal and the listeners "knew by the engine's moans that the man at the throttle was Casey

COUNTRY WIT

The city slicker halted his car at a desolate crossroads and yelled to a farmer driving a load of hay: "Hey, Cornsilk, is this the way to Chicago?"

The farmer looked up in feigned astonishment. "By gum, stranger, how'd ye know my name was Cornsilk?"

"I guessed it," answered the slicker. "Then by heck," snapped the farmer, "guess your way to Chicago!"

School Survey Shows Need for Higher Standards

Texas is one of the five states rated between 85 and 90 per cent self sufficient in local and state financing vocational courses in the public school system. This information was based on the result of a nation-wide school facilities survey. The figures apply primarily to the salaries and training of vocational teachers.

Cost of buildings, supplies and equipment for vocational training has always been borne largely by state and local finances. The other four high states in this field were California, Massachusetts, Florida and Washington.

Information released was based on the reports of 25 states. The results were given by the Office of Education and show a wide variation in the type and condition of school plants now in use.

Reported conditions included overcrowding, failure to meet fire and safety conditions and lack of sanitary facilities.

Among the elementary schools 44% were reported unsatisfactory. Twenty per cent of the school buildings were reported as being over 50 years old. Of all the elementary children, 25% had no indoor toilet facilities and 20% had no washing facilities. At least half of all the daily classroom loads were above the 30 pupil mark and 10% above the 40 pupil mark.

The report also showed that about half of the combined elementary-secondary school plants, or buildings, had no library, gym, shops, home economics, music or science rooms. The survey points out that while these conditions exist, elementary school enrollment is climbing at the approximate rate of one million per year.

Evaluation of local school plants, grounds and curricula is being carried on to help raise the educational standards in Texas. In Texas, as in many other states, federal aid to schools is slowly being done away with. Gradual shouldering of the responsibility of financing vocational education and college instruction is being exercised by the state and community. The Morrill Act, which provides federal funds for schools, is slowly decreasing in importance. This fund contributed 6.5% of college budgets in 1916 and less than 1% in 1951.

Benefactor's Award Given to Coble For $5,000 Check

W. T. Coble of Amarillo was given a Benefactor's Award Friday night at the College Cafeteria for the check of $5,000 which he recently gave to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum building fund.

Mr. Coble is the fifth person to be given this Award. During the years he has seldom failed to attend a meeting of the society and has served as an officer.

David M. Warren made the presentation and outlined the colorful life of Mr. Coble from the early days when he first entered the cattle business.

What's your earliest memory of Sunday? We heard this question asked of a group of old timers the other day and each of their answers was a picture story in itself:

"We dressed in our best clothes, got in the wagon and went to church!"

"Oh, we had to be quiet. Of course, we went to church, but we weren't supposed to play any games or be noisy in any way."

"We lived pretty far out in the country, so we didn't go to church; but Grandma gathered us round her Presbyterian knee and quizzed us on the catechism."

"It was easy to get us kids off to church because we loved to sing. And we knew the sermon had to go along with it. Then in the afternoon we'd have singing again."

"We rarely went to sleep during family prayers, but if we did, we weren't scolded; we were just waked up."

If there were any present who hadn't received some pretty strict religious training they kept quiet. But even though most of them had grown up under the fire-and-brimstone code, they agreed that today — so long as Sunday includes church — the right way to spend it has to be worked out by each person for himself.

Social patterns a couple of generations ago were simpler than they are today. Yet the quiet assurance of those good women makes us wonder if our own society is as complex as we try to make it seem. After all, such a code as they propose — "so long as Sunday includes church" — if universally applied, would give everyone that indispensable something-to-go-back-to when the going gets rough.

When we get right down to it, isn't that what we're all searching for?

Bible Verse to Study

"Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."

QUESTIONS:

1. Which of the Ten Commandments is this?
2. What does the word "holy" mean?
3. Did Jesus observe the Sabbath?
4. Where may this commandment be found?

Bible Verse Answers

1. The Third.
2. Sacred, consecrated, or set apart for the worship of God.
3. He "went into the synagogue on the Sabbath, as His custom was." (Luke 4:16)
4. Exodus 20: 8.

SMART DISCOVERY

A visitor at the golf club teed up for the first hole, made a wild swing and completely missed the ball.

"It's a good thing I found out at the start," he said. "This course is at least two inches lower than the course I usually play."

Food will cook as quickly in gently boiling water as in rapidly boiling water.

YOUTH NEEDS THE CHURCH—THE CHURCH NEEDS YOUTH

I LOOK FORWARD TO CHURCH, FOR I LOVE TO SING. THE CHOIR OFFERS ME AN OPPORTUNITY TO USE MY MUSICAL TRAINING.

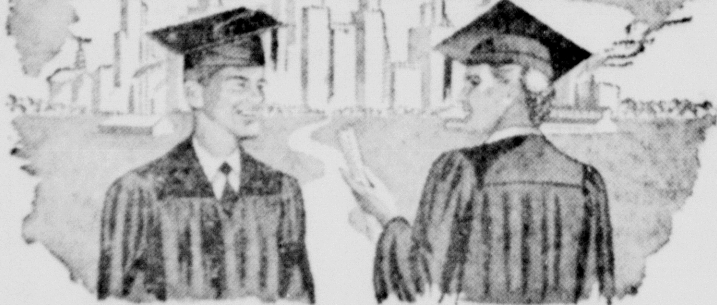

I FEEL THAT I NEED THE COUNSEL AND GUIDANCE I GET IN CHURCH IF I AM TO BE PREPARED FOR THE FUTURE WE HAVE TO FACE.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple.

Psalms 27:4.

New Regulations Will Affect the Storage of Wheat

Rains in recent weeks have given new life to the wheat crop on the high plains. Once again combines are expected to run and elevators will be busy.

This year Randall County wheat producers and elevators as well as producers and elevators everywhere, will be vitally affected by new regulations of the Food and Drug Administration. These regulations will insure that only sanitary wheat can be sold for human food consumption.

The regulations start with the county elevators and apply to all wheat from there on through the marketing process. Inspections are already under way. Farm storage is not directly under these new regulations. Wheat falls under the regulation measures when it leaves farm storage and reaches the county elevators.

Here are the important new regulations that will be enforced this year. First, wheat cannot have more than three weevil cut kernels in 100 grams of wheat; second, wheat cannot have more than an occasional rat or bird or mouse excrement pellet; third, wheat cannot have any excessive filth of any kind.

Wheat that does not meet the above regulations cannot be used for human consumption and so will be reduced in value in market dealings.

Randall County farmers should start now to send only quality wheat from farm storage. A few simple steps now may mean as much as 50 cents per bushel in the value of that same wheat a year from now.

Here are a few things that farmers can do to meet these new regulations.

(1) Clean all old grain from bins. (2) Spray bin with a suitable residual spray. (3) Do not fill bins to full and do not put high moisture wheat in storage. (4) Inspect grain frequently. (5) Fumigate infected grain.

If dry grain (below 12% moisture content) is stored in weather-tight bins that are clean and have been sprayed with DDT or other approved insecticide, and is fumigated within five weeks after storage and is examined regularly, the grain should be safe from insect infestation throughout the season.

The County Agent, John Brazzil, can supply more information that may be useful to farmers who will put wheat in storage.

Dr. Parker Leads Discussion on Pipe Line Corrosion

Dr. Ivy M. Parker, field technologist for Plantation Pipe Line Company at Atlanta, Ga., sister of J. O. Parker and former student of West Texas State, was the only woman among 310 men to attend a national conference of petroleum technologists in Houston recently.

Dr. Parker was the first woman to get a doctor of philosophy degree in chemistry from the University of Texas. She is now one of the nation's leading experts on pipe line corrosion and served as umpire to opposing thoughts on how to control the barnacles of rust and corrosion inside petroleum pipelines which formed a focal point for the conference.

Her interest in chemistry began while a grade school student at Hereford and Tucumcari, N. M. She took her bachelor's degree in that subject at West Texas State where she won national honors on a paper written on a chemical topic. While doing graduate work at the University of Texas she began specializing in petroleum chemistry.

Her first job in 1936 was with Shell Oil where she began research on pipe line corrosion. In 1945 she joined Plantation Pipe Line Company and has continued with that company.

Of the former Texas and New Mexico ranch girl, J. W. deGroot, Harrisburg, Pa., chairman of the American Petroleum Institute unit, said, "Doctor Parker is a mighty capable and highly regarded woman. We men recognize her as an authority on corrosion, and are anxious to learn from the knowledge she contributes to these technological meetings."

Dr. Parker made Canyon her home for several years and visits frequently in the home of her brother, Otis Parker, and family.

Hereford Brand In Appreciation of Work Buffalo Lake

Jimmie Gillentine, publisher of The Hereford Brand, has expressed appreciation of Roy Childers and his crew of workmen at Buffalo Lake.

Here is the way Jimmie puts the case in Sunday's Hereford Brand: "Remember the trouble we had with lake concessionaires a month or so ago. Well, we take off our hat to the boys in 1952. They are OK. You seldom hear a complaint about the service — even the 4:00 a. m. fishermen are taken care of in a big way. This is wonderful. Mr. Childers and his crew are doing a good job. That's what we needed all of the time."

"Running a concession like Buffalo Lake is tough and you boys who fish out there have a chance to show your appreciation to Mr. Childers by being as considerate and helpful as possible. After all, the lake belongs to the people. Taking care of the facilities is another way of taking care of your own property. Let's meet this new bunch halfway. It is merely another way to assure continued good service like we have seen during the past 60 years."

Republicans are beginning to be concerned over the prospect that Senator Estes Kefauver, with a place on the 1952 Democratic ticket, may enable the Democrats to campaign this year as the party of reform and of honesty in Government. Republicans had hoped to capitalize on that issue at expense of the Democrats.

Governor Earl Warren of California, with a probable 70 delegates from his home State, will hold a strong hand in the Republican Convention when it comes time to decide between Taft and Eisenhower. California and Pennsylvania, with 70 delegates each, are in a key trading position.

Texas History To Be Published in Two Volumes

Dr. H. Bailey Carroll of the University of Texas stated Friday that proof is now being read on the Texas history which has been in the process of compilation for eight years. The history will cover 15,000 subjects; will be published in two volumes of 1000 pages each.

When work was started eight years ago newspapers throughout the state were contacted and subjects were submitted. The Texas Historical Society hopes to make the most complete history ever published of the State of Texas.

The two volumes should be ready for distribution by November 15th.

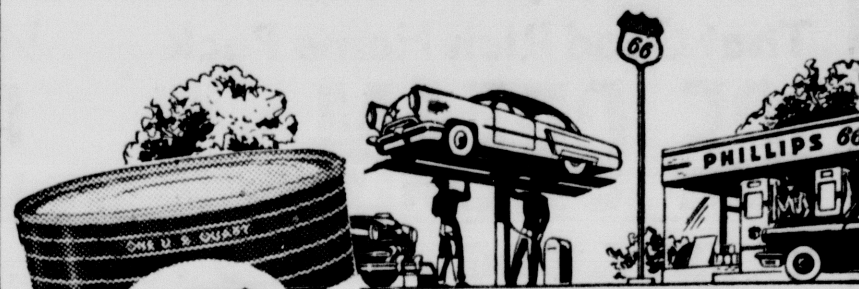

Politicians are eying the 1952 reactions of women voters with unusual interest. What they think they see is a strong feminine partiality toward Kefauver in the Democratic Party and Eisenhower in the Republican Party.

President Truman's tendency to go out of his way to say nice things about General Eisenhower is designed to make Republicans wary of the General. The strategy is to encourage a Republican nomination of Taft on the ground that the Democrats might stand a chance to defeat him.

Four Ex-West Texans Renew Acquaintances At Landsberg

West Texas State College was the subject of conversation last week in Landsberg Air Force Base, Germany, when four service men, all exes of WT, held a get-together there.

Attending the reunion were Airman Second Class Bill Cleavinger, Staff Sergeant Jim Hodges, Lieutenant Colonel Burt Glass and Lieutenant E. W. Snyder.

Cleavinger attended the college during the '49-50 term. He joined the Air Force in January, 1950, and took his training at San Antonio. He was sent to Germany in June of that year. He is presently with the 807th Tactical Control Squadron and was a member of the squadron basketball team that won the European Air Force Championship this year. His wife is the former June Jennings of Canyon.

Attending WT during the '46-'47 and '47-'48 terms, Hodges joined the Air Force in October, 1948. He received his Air Force training in San Antonio and was sent to Germany in March, 1951. He is due to return to the States in July of this year and plans to return to WT if the world situation does not necessitate his remaining in the Air Force.

Glass graduated from WT in 1940 and entered Air Force flying school soon after. He was commissioned in September, 1941.

He flew 63 missions in P-38's during the Second World War with the 474th Fighter Bomber Wing in Europe. He holds the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with 10 bronze clusters and the Croix du Guerre.

His wife, the former Juanita Lowe of Canyon, along with their two sons and daughter recently joined Colonel Glass in Germany where he is with the 12th Air Force.

Snyder graduated from WT in 1941. He was recalled to active duty that year. During World War II, he flew 47 missions against the Japanese and received the Silver Star, Air Medal and various theater and unit citations. After the war he returned to civilian life and WT. Mrs. Snyder, the former Virginia Williams of Long Beach, Cal., is also a graduate of the WT class worked two years before entering of '51. She recently joined Lt. Snyder in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davidson and son of Amarillo visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dawson.

Morrisset Rites Held in Lubbock

John B. Morrisset died Sunday at the Taylor Clinic in Lubbock after many years of illness. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the First Methodist Church in Lubbock, Dr. H. I. Robinson officiating.

At the time of his death Mr. Morrisset was manager of the Southwestern Public Service Co. office in Lubbock. He had served in this capacity since leaving Canyon for Lubbock in 1937. He was manager of the local Southwestern Public Service office from 1934 until his transfer in 1937.

The deceased is survived by his wife and three sons, Wendell Morrisset, First Lieutenant in the Marine Corps and stationed in Virginia, Dr. Leslie Morrisset, a physician of Wylie, Texas, and Cpl. John M. Morrisset of the Marine Corps stationed at Corpus Christi. He is also survived by two grandsons.

Johnson No Need H. S. Diploma To Enter Chicago U.

Stewart Johnson, 16 year old son of Charles Y. Johnson, Randall County Commissioner of Precinct 4, does not need a high school diploma to enter the University of Chicago. Although Stewart Johnson is only a junior in Amarillo High School, he can go straight from his Amarillo classes to the University of Chicago.

Johnson is the first Amarillo student to be chosen by any of the four American universities which accept high school students on scholastic standings rather than waiting for them to get a diploma. Stewart qualified on three counts. They were:

(1) High school record: 94 plus, as his overall scholastic rating; (2) Recommendations from high school faculty and Amarillo citizens; he is a member of the Student Council, Bel Canto Chorale, Ken-Club (scholastic organization), Allied Youth and tennis team. He has proved his ability to handle business methods by carrying not one but two newspaper routes each morning; (3) Test prepared by the University of Chicago was passed with flying colors.

University of Chicago has long been a leader in education for education's sake. In addition to pushing the entrance requirements aside for Johnson, there will be a scholarship of $690 annually. So long as his scholastic average is kept up this scholarship will be renewed each year until he graduates from the university.

The University of Chicago has pioneered in the field of accelerated education. It will give a B. A. degree in two years if the student shows he can grasp the amount of work in this period that is usually assigned to four years.

The university is in line with this method by judging its incoming students by their ability to carry its scholastic program and not by the number of years they spend in secondary schools. In fact, it is possible for a high school sophomore to enter the University of Chicago if they have reached the entrance requirements.

A new blockade of Berlin, if it is clamped on tightly and maintained, is to raise a question about the role played by Gen. Dwight Eisenhower in the period when negotiations were carried out that led to establishment of present-day Berlin, occupied in part by U. S. troops with no assured land line of supply from the West.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur will be first choice for the Republican presidential nomination and Senator Robert Taft second choice of the highly important block of Pennsylvania delegates now controlled by Governor John S. Fine. Pennsylvania is one of the keys to Republican nomination.

Maurice Tobin, Secretary of Labor in the Truman Cabinet, finds that he has only nominal influence on the labor policy of the Administration. Mr. Tobin sometimes learns of decisions after they are made.

HELP FOR BLIND

A new booklet, designed to help blind men and women find the many worthwhile jobs open to them has been issued by the Federal Security Agency and will be distributed through State and territorial agencies. The Agency will later produce Braille editions and talking-book forms of the booklet. There are some 260,000 Americans who are blind and another 22,000 lose their sight each year.

Senator William F. Knowland, of California, is being looked over carefully by the Eisenhower forces as a possible choice for second place on the Republican ticket if "Ike" should be nominated. Senator Knowland is closely associated with Governor Earl Warren of California, who expects to have a block of 70 delegates, and he also is viewed as an offset to the idea that "Ike" is a "Europe first" man.

Alexander Wiley, Senator from Wisconsin and next chairman of the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee if Republicans win the Senate in 1952 elections, is getting himself in tune with the present foreign policy. The Wisconsin Senator, like the late Senator Arthur Vandenberg, is converted from moderate isolationism to an advocate of close international co-operation.

James P. McGranery, as the new Attorney General, will propose no new plans for investigating charges of corruption in the Federal Government. President Truman does not wish another experience like the Newbold Morris episode, which turned up nothing but embarrassment for the Truman Administration.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Vice Chief of Staff, is to sit in on the top Air Force job during the illness of Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg. Gen. Curtis LeMay, who is strongly favored within the Air Force for the top job, is described as too blunt to get along with politicians in Congress.

Some politicians are beginning to wonder if Russia's Joseph Stalin is taking active interest in American politics and is gearing his moves to influence the selection of the next American President. Stalin is keeping the Korean war going and is starting to stir things up in Europe in a way that can make foreign policy the main issue of the campaign.

Robert Lovett, Secretary of Defense, is being credited with running "a tight, quiet ship" at the Pentagon where his predecessors were involved in squabbles. Secretary Lovett's health is not robust and he insists upon avoiding the old "brawl a minute" schedule.

A Queen Consort is the wife of a reigning king.

4-H Club To Hold Three Day Camp On WT Campus

The West Texas State College campus will be the scene for extension district number one's 4-H club camp May 26, 27 and 28. The district is made up of 20 counties. Each county will be represented by extension agents, their leaders as well as three boys and three girls.

Purpose of the camp this year will be to train club members and leaders in leadership and farm safety, said John Brazzil, Randall County Agent and 4-H club worker.

Those attending the camp will register Monday afternoon, May 26, and will have a get-acquainted party Monday night. On Tuesday morning, May 27, the training program in farm machinery safety and auto driving will begin.

On Tuesday afternoon the campers will visit Palo Duro State Park. They will have a nature study tour and receive training in rifle shooting. A representative of the Remington Firearms Company will be present to give instructions pertaining to safety and marksmanship.

Supper Tuesday night will be enjoyed in the open air of Palo Duro State Park. Lessons will be given in outdoor cooking and the members will prepare their own meal on the slab at crossing number one in Palo Duro Canyon.

The campers will return to the campus Wednesday where they will receive lessons on recreation, leadership and safety. They will return to their prospective counties Thursday, May 29.

During the time spent on the campus the 4-H club members and leaders will make a tour to learn the college facilities at WT. They will also pay a visit to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum.

While attending the camp here the 4-H club members and workers will sleep in West Texas State dormitories and eat their meals in the cafeteria.

Knox Parr and Doris Leggett, District Agents from Amarillo, will be in charge of the camp. In addition there will be extension service specialists from Texas A&M College and three specialists will work with the camp delegates in conducting activities.

Play-a-Week Planned for Summer; First Production Opens June 2

June 2, 3, 4, 5 will herald the opening of the fourth season for WT's Summer Theater which always is a favorite attraction to audiences in the Panhandle. This year the BIT will open with "Gramercy Ghost," a mystery comedy. Many of the Summer Theater faces will be recognized again in this play along with new members of the "family."

Dick Houston will play the part of the "Gramercy Ghost" and others in the play will be Mary Jo French, Rosie Bates, Odell Wilkes, Jerry Williams, Mickey Williams, and Mabel Hare — just a few of "veterans" of Summer Theater.

"The Glass Menagerie" will be the second Summer Theater drama. This play will be given June 7-9-10 and will star Wendell Cain as Tom. This will be Cain's last play on the campus before he leaves for the University of Denver to start study on his doctor's degree. At the present, Cain is speech instructor in the department.

Since this is a very important political year, Summer Theater will offer as their third play, "First Lady," a comedy on politics. This play will be given June 13-14-15-16. For the last play of the season, and in connection with the Writers' Workshop, the BIT will present an original script from this workshop. This play will be chosen from all other works entered in the workshop and should prove very interesting in the outcome. This play will be given June 20-21-22-23.

All those interested in joining Summer Theater should contact W. A. Moore, WT speech professor, and should keep in mind that the necessity for belonging is not acting—but interest in any phase of speech work and dramatic presentation. —B. G.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

Church membership, in the nation as a whole, is growing twice as fast as the population, according to statistics of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. While the population of the country as a whole was growing only 28.6 per cent between 1926 and 1950, the total membership of the larger church groups increased 59.8 per cent, to 85,319,274. The council represents Protestant and Eastern orthodox churches.

CARRY ON!

One sunny afternoon two silent lanky mountaineers met on a wooded trail. One stared at the other with a puzzled expression and inquired:

"Look here, David, what do you mean by shooting at me? I ain't got no quarrel with you." "You had a feud with Abe Gordon, didn't you?" asked the other. "Sure, but Abe's dead." "Well," was the stern reply, "I'm his executor."

MOVERS

About one of every five of the population of the United States changed residence each year from 1947 to the spring of 1950, according to the U. S. Bureau of the Census. The estimated number involved were 28,000,000 persons a year in the 1948-50 period and 29,000,000 in the 1947 period.

DRAFT

The Army has issued a call for 10,000 draftees in June and 31,000 in July. Selective Service will be about as much as the July call for the rest of the year, it is said. The Marine Corps plans no calls for June and July. The Navy and Air Force have taken no draftees since the outbreak of the Korean War.

AIR FORCE

The Air Force will probably ground more than 1,000 flying officers this fiscal year. This step will be taken because of a lack of flight proficiency or, particularly among older men, a lack of physical fitness.

Charles Goodyear invented vulcanized rubber.

Lichi nuts are grown in China.

Thousands Visit The Museum on W. T. Campus

More than 100,000 persons will visit the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum on the campus of West Texas State this year if the present rate of attendance is maintained, stated C. Boone McClure Friday.

This statement was made at the meeting of the directors who were present for the annual business session of the group.

Great improvements have been made in the physical plant during the past year, according to reports of J. Evetts Haley, Ray Daniel, Boone McClure and Dr. L. F. Shelly.

Jack Hughes and Clarence Kincaid have recently been added to the staff of the Museum. Display cases are under construction in several parts of the building.

The top story of the north section of the Museum building was opened with a display of fine arts for Friday's meeting. A number of paintings from the collection of Judge J. D. Hamlin of Farwell, which was given to the Society upon his death, and the recent paintings of Harold Bugbee of Clarendon were on display. Among the paintings displayed were 47 from the studio of Mr. Bugbee and 68 from the Hamlin Collection.

Tom Lineburg of Midland was present and has secured for the Society the diary of a cowboy as was written on the back porch of a ranch house. The wall will be moved intact to the museum where it will be displayed. The diary is the most complete one ever left by a cow puncher. Lineburg and Jack Taylor of Canyon were added to the list of directors of the Society.

Members present were Mesdames Frank Barnhill, Frank Bergert, Ely Bowden, Hatcher Brown, Robert Busted, Levi Cole, Clay Cooper, Earl Craig, T. V. Crouse, W. S. Haggard, Virgil Henson, Robert P. Jarrett, Mitchell Jones, A. G. Kiesbach, Dennis Ford.

WHO, ME? NERVOUS?

Lieutenant Bailey, youthful air force pilot, had just landed his fighter after a mission north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel and went in to report to his commanding officer.

"Were you nervous during the attack?" inquired the C. O.

"Who? Me?" asked Bailey. "No sir, I was cool as a cucumber through the whole show."

"Swell," replied the C. O. "I just thought you might have been a little jittery when you radioed that 15,000 enemy jets were coming at eight feet."

Palo Duro State Park Sets a New Attendance Mark

Attendance at Palo Duro Canyon State Park reached the astounding record total of 130,279 in the fiscal year ending May 14th, 1952. These people came in 35,143 cars, trucks and busses. During the travel year ending in September, Palo Duro State Park attracted more out of state tourist cars than any other Texas tourist attraction. This lead has been increasing since that time.

Attendance for the fiscal year ending May 1951 was 98,063 and for the fiscal year ending May 1950 was 108,894 and the attendance for the year ending May 14th, 1949, was 50,250.

Park officials report that if the present percentage of gain continues to hold the attendance may reach 150,000.

Playground equipment, improved water facilities, additional picnic units and improved lateral roads are being added to the park this spring. Paving, additional lights and bus service have been added during the fiscal year.

John L. McCarty, public relations counsel and concessionaire, who has had charge of the park development since May 1949 reports that tourist acceptance of the "World's Most Colorful Canyon" is 99 per cent enthusiastic. He believes that foundations laid will result in an increasing flow of tourist travel to the park, bringing handsome economic assets to the entire southwest.

Driver Training Given in Summer

Dr. James B. Roberts, head of the education department of West Texas State College, announced this week that driver training and safety education would be taught during the summer session. Dr. Roberts explained that a considerable number of obstacles had been overcome in order to offer this short course in driver training and safety education.

Registration preference will go to teachers who will be teaching driver training in their high school next fall. After the teachers are enrolled, registration will go on a first-come-first-served basis until approximately 20 people are enrolled, said Dr. Roberts.

Date for the driver training and safety education short course is set for July 21 to August 8. Classes will be conducted Monday through Friday from 9 o'clock in the morning to 12 o'clock noon. It's a three hour course that requires lab work.

Tuition for the course is $10 plus $5 lab fee.

FAIR PROPORTION

Can't see the furore about these 40-60 per cent horseburgers. Years ago a sausage maker was accused of adding horse meat to his rabbit sausage. When the judge asked what mixture he used, he said, "50-50."

"What do you mean," asked the judge, "a pound of horse to a pound of rabbit?"

"No," said the sausage man, "one horse to one rabbit."

CHRYSLER SARATOGA 6-PASSENGER SEDAN

ITS NEW KIND OF HORSEPOWER IS SOMETHING TO FEEL!

With its 180 HP V-8 engine, on 125 1/4 inches of wheelbase, many people think the Saratoga is the best Chrysler car of all.

We invite you to take the wheel and feel what happens! There's a new sense of easy power, of reserve power that make driving a new experience.

Its revolutionary combustion chamber develops more of the power in each charge of fuel than other engines can do. One result is performance, even on non-premium fuel, such as you have never felt. Another result is new economy. It's an engine that scarcely forms carbon at all. It creates less heat. It will last much longer, stay younger on the way!

And with Chrysler full-time Power Steering, you steer with one-fifth the usual effort... drive with five times the usual control! With Power Brakes you need up to two-thirds less foot pressure... and still stop in many feet less than other cars can do.

Yes, behind Chrysler's new engine you'll find a new kind of car. Won't you come in and feel what we mean?

Baccalaureate by Rev. Carl Bates; Anderson Commencement Speaker

One hundred and ninety-five graduating students participated in the activities Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock Baccalaureate service in the Administration Auditorium of West Texas State College. The audience sang the Doxology at the beginning of the program. Rev. Herschel Thurston gave the invocation and the assembly sang Gloria. After the reading of the scripture by Dr. A. Kirk Knott the assembly sang another hymn.

Dr. J. A. Hill, president emeritus of West Texas State College, gave the morning prayer which was followed by announcements by Dr. J. P. Cornette, president of the college. Following the announcements the college choir sang Gloria (from the 12th Mass) by Handel. Houston Bright, associate professor of music and current head of the department, was conductor.

The Baccalaureate sermon was given by Rev. Carl Bates of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo. A hymn followed the sermon and the service was closed with the benediction, given by Joe Watson, minister of the Church of Christ.

The Baccalaureate service took the place of the regular morning worship services of the Canyon churches.

Sunday afternoon the Commencement Concert was given by the West Texas State College Band under the direction of W. O. Latson. The concert was given in the auditorium of the Administration Building.

Commencement exercises began Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the auditorium of the Administration Building. The program was officially opened by a procession of the faculty and the graduating seniors.

After the processional march ended Rev. T. Winston Wilbanks gave the invocation. At the end of the Commencement address by the Honorable R. B. Anderson of Vernon the West Texas State College band played the Royal Fireworks Suite by Handel.

Highlight of the Commencement program was the granting of the degrees by Dr. James P. Cornette. The assembly then stood and sang the Alma Mater which was followed by the recessional.

Anderson is manager of the Waggoner Estate in Vernon. He took a law degree at the University of Texas in 1932. Besides this, he has an honorary LLD from McMurry College in Abilene, an LLD degree from Texas Christian University in Ft. Worth and has an LLD degree from Mid-

A woman may turn her thoughts to anything she pleases over the foaming suds of a dishpan. She may compose a poem while doing the family ironing.

Junior was a little terror, the scourge of his home and the neighborhood, so Papa was understandably surprised when Mama suggested they buy him a bicycle.

"Do you think it will improve his behavior?" inquired Papa. "No," answered Mama grimly, "but it might spread his meanness over a larger area."

WT Tracksters Back From Meet

Eight representatives from West Texas State journeyed to Arizona State College at Tempe last Friday and Saturday for the Border Conference track and field meet.

The West Texans failed to place in any event. The meet brought WT's joint total for the past five years to 1½.

Members of the varsity track squad making the trip and events "entered" were as follows: Toby Boothe, shot put, 440 yard dash and javelin; Bobby Clark, broad jump; Marvin Smith, shot put, discus and javelin; Leon Evans, 100 and 220 yard dashes; Pat Shipp, high jump; Boyd Vaughn, broad jump; Douglas Mahan, pole vault and shot put; W. L. Cleveland, high jump and 880 yard run.

The speedsters and field men returned to the campus Sunday.

WT Ex To Lecture In Australia Soon

Dr. H. Arlin Turner, an ex-student of West Texas State College who received his master's and doctor's degree from the University of Texas, will lecture in Australia. Dr. Turner, who is a professor of English and American Literature at Louisiana State University, won a Fulbright award to lecture on American civilization at the University of Western Australia at Perth.

The lectures are to be delivered during the second and third terms of its 1952 session. They extend from June through November.

The appointment involves the giving of a course of lectures on major American authors in addition to some authors of the twentieth century. A series of lectures on Southern regional literature is also planned.

Professor Turner will be accompanied by Mrs. Turner and their children. They will sail from New York on the Queen Mary late in May for Southampton. From London they will embark for the long trip "down under" to Australia. They will return to America by the Pacific route, thus completing their circumnavigation of the globe.

LSU has granted Dr. Turner leave for the first semester of 1952-53 to enable him to accept this appointment. This will not be Dr. Turner's first experience in lecturing at a foreign university. During the first semester of the current academic year, he was visiting professor at the University of Montreal.

Upon completion of his post-graduate work at Texas University, Turner returned to West Texas State where he was a member of the English department during the mid-30's. He went from WT to Louisiana State University.

He is 26, married, a veteran of World War II, a member of Tau Tau Tau, and served as president of the WT Student Senate during the 1951-52 school year.

Ruth Ann Soll, senior music major, received the Pi Omega award as the outstanding female senior student. She is 20 years old and from Canyon.

REGISTERED NURSE SAYS BIG 12 FORMULA IS BEST

When a registered nurse with years of experience in hospitals and private homes caring for sick people recommends a medicinal product one can be certain that the product has real merit. Mrs. Fern Collins, a registered nurse who resides in San Clemente, California and recently visited in Texas had this to say about BIG 12 Iron Tonic.

"I am a registered nurse, serving many years in hospitals and on private cases, and I have seen many instances where patients, suffering from stomach trouble, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and a general run-down condition have been greatly benefited by taking a vitamin and mineral tonic such as BIG 12. In fact I should consider BIG 12 an absolute necessity where the patient's system is deficient in Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Niacin, and Iron; this is especially true in cases of iron anemia of which there are many. I have studied the BIG 12 formula carefully and BIG 12 supplies by far more iron per daily dose than any similar product I have seen and I think I am familiar with all of them. BIG 12 also supplies in the daily dose as much of the new Red Vitamin B<sub>12</sub> as a doctor usually gives in an intramuscular injection. I believe that BIG 12 Iron Tonic, supplying as it does, helpful amounts of Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, and Niacin in addition to Vitamin B<sub>12</sub> and with such a large Iron content is undoubtedly the best tonic a person, young or old, can take to relieve conditions caused by these deficiencies. Also, because of its pleasant taste, BIG 12 is invaluable to mothers whose children are not thriving as they should, since children will readily take BIG 12 and this is important to mothers because other similar products usually taste atrociously and have to be diluted with water to enable an adult to take them, much less trying to get such a dose down a child. BIG 12 requires no dilution with water, in fact BIG 12 can be placed in milk without causing the milk to curdle as will be the case with other similar products."

If you or any one in your family, a grownup, or child, is suffering with stomach distress, listlessness, poor appetite, nervousness, nagging aches and pains and sleeplessness due to deficiencies of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Niacin and Iron you could not possibly do a greater favor than to purchase a bottle of BIG 12 Iron Tonic at your drug store and within a short time, often before the first bottle has been taken, you will note a decided change for the better, you'll note more energy, better appetite and a general improvement so why wait? BIG 12 is the product you have been looking for if you suffer from these deficiencies and it is as close to you as your nearest drug store.

Posture Queen and King Chosen; Root And Gum Win Over 42 Candidates

Nancy Root and Royce Gum were chosen Posture King and Queen of West Texas Elementary School in the annual Posture Contest which was held recently.

The Eight-one English class sponsored the contest after studying and observing correct posture and writing themes on the subject.

Miss Ruth Cross, Dean of Women at West Texas State, in a talk on posture, told the class, "The important thing in good posture is 'extension,' or reaching for the ceiling with the top of your head.

Forty-four boys and girls competed in the posture show, after having been nominated by other students or teachers. They were asked to pick up a book from the floor, sit in a chair, and return the book to the floor, in order to determine their posture.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Root, of 1001 Seventh Avenue. She is president of her class and also manages the basketball team. Her hobbies are collecting pictures and china cups and saucers.

Royce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gum, 1910 7th Avenue. He likes to do radio work and collect flints and rocks. At times he has been known to bring back two or three hundred pounds of rocks from one vacation trip.

Second places were won by Kathy Truax and Glen Tuckey, with Barbara Jo Shepard and Bill Harrison placing third.

This is the second year the contest has been held at W. T. E. Miss Ruth Cross, who served as judge, told the group that she noticed a great improvement in the students' posture and poise since the first of the year, and that the judging was difficult because of the number of good entrants.

Other candidates for the contest were Arlene Bagley, Anna Marie Barker, Avalon Brown, Charles Brasher, Nandy Brummitt, Mary Sue Bolton, Ronald Crow, Nelda Coffee, Jack Campbell, Theora Casby, Jon Cross, Donna Carter, Melvin Cunningham, Sherry Dawson, Carolyn Davis, Jerome Edwards.

White Gets $150 Prize From Cabot

Winner of the Cabot Award in Journalism this year at West Texas State College is Aurenia White, graduating senior from Pampa. The award was announced this morning at the college's Senior Day assembly.

This is the second annual journalism award to be presented by The Cabot Company of Pampa, to a WT journalism student. The company presented its first award last year.

The award is presented to the journalism student writing the best feature on a subject stipulated by a broad made up of representatives from Cabot Company and the college. Miss White is a major in secondary education at the college and carried a minor in journalism. She is secretary of Mu Kappa Delta, college journalism fraternity. She is also a member of Buffalo Gals, service organization, and Future Teachers of America, and is reporter for Kappa Tau Phi, local social sorority.

She was named a college representative this year in the publication, "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

Before attending West Texas, Miss White was enrolled as a student at Wayland College. She transferred to WT in 1949.

Foxes Attacking Rural Citizens Of Pennsylvania

EAST DALLAS, Pa. — Rabies-maddened foxes have attacked housewives hanging out their laundry, children and farmers in fields in parts of eastern Pennsylvania, authorities say.

Rabies has killed one woman, made many ill, and felled hundreds of domestic animals.

Mrs. Ruby Dixon, 32, East Dallas, died after being bitten by a rabid fox which she choked to death to free herself from its grip.

All other persons bitten have recovered.

Some of the boldest attacks took place in Chester county, near Philadelphia. Housewives were bitten as they hung laundry outdoors to dry. A farmer was attacked on his tractor and a child was bitten in a heavily populated district.

Raymond Hagee, 8, and his cousin, Richard Thomas, 12, were attacked by a rabid fox as they explored a stream near their home in Exton, Pa. Richard killed the animal with one blow with the butt of an unloaded .22-caliber rifle.

In the back mountain region of Luzerne County, many housewives were carrying clubs and rifles.

The state agriculture department said 18 persons were bitten by animals suspected of having rabies in the last six months of 1951 and "many persons" have been bitten this year. The department said 37 cases of rabies, 20 of them in foxes, were reported during the first seven weeks of this year.

In Chester and Luzerne counties, fox-hunting parties were organized to beat the bush and woodlands. Montgomery county residents were told to trap the animals because "most of them are gray foxes which won't run in front of hounds. They hit the first hole they reach."

State officials and sportsmen's clubs placed poisoned crows throughout infested areas, explaining that dogs and cats won't eat them while foxes consider them delicacies.

Gov. John S. Fine announced a campaign by the state health and agriculture departments and the game commission to control rabies, describing it as a "serious menace to the health of Pennsylvanians."

The game commission said the current outbreak began in Chester county several years ago and spread to Bucks, Montgomery and Delaware counties. The disease has also flared in Susquehanna and Luzerne counties and cases were reported in 13 other counties.

Lack of Garbage Can Jails Detroit Woman

DETROIT—A 42-year-old mother who had been in a police station only to buy a dog license charged that her 10-year-old son was taken and she was locked up in jail overnight for not owning a garbage can.

Mrs. Hildegarde Walgraave said a policeman gave her a ticket for failing to provide a garbage can at her home, although she burns the garbage in an incinerator.

"I bought a garbage can the next day and thought that was that," she said.

But, she said, two officers went to her house with a warrant on a charge of failing to meet city garbage regulations.

Mrs. Walgraave, who is separated from her husband, said she had to take her son with her because there was no one to leave him with.

"At the Police Station I only had 75 cents," she said. "When I couldn't post a $10 bond, the police said I'd have to go to jail."

The boy, who was under treatment for a nervous condition, spent three hours at the Juvenile Detention Home.

Mrs. Walgraave said she spent the night in a cell with a dope addict.

He has lost 20 pounds and now weighs 170. He says he is "still able to do my work, and I feel strong inside."

The minister says his fast will prove "my faith in the Lord and that He will fill all our needs."

Young Girl Is Revived Three Times in Operation

BROOKLYN—A 4-year-old girl's heart stopped beating three times in 90 minutes during a minor eye operation, a Brooklyn hospital reported, and each time she was brought back to life by massaging.

Several hours later, the Brooklyn eye and ear hospital said, the young patient seemed to be all right and hope was expressed for her recovery.

The child was not identified, nor were the surgeons.

Benjamin Harrison was the last U. S. President to wear a beard.

Just Between You, Me and ... the Gatepost

The parking situation is a problem to some business men on the north side of the square. One of the recent complaints by business men is about downtown workers who park in front of a business and leave their cars until they get off for lunch or finish the day. At least one of the businesses on the north side of the square believes this procedure is an obstacle in getting customers. There's no ruling on the length of parking so it's left up to motorist discrimination.

This week students at West Texas State College head happily homeward to begin the summer vacation. Some will have the happy satisfaction of college work satisfactorily done while others will be lamenting the fact that they ended up with low grades. The thrill of vacation will soon wipe out most of the sadness by replacing it with a determination to do better next fall. Whether their marks are low or high, most students will find it a cherished week to remember.

One of the most outstanding things in the weather last week was the quick change from warm sunshine to dreary cloudiness and a cold wave that dropped temperatures low enough that a coat was comfortable. Several people about town who had planned to get up early Saturday morning and enjoy a bit of fishing at Buffalo Lake before going to work, changed their minds when they felt the nip in the air.

Everyone who went out to the Lake for some fishing during the warm weather in the earlier part of the week, reported comparatively good to excellent results. In fact, there was some speculation as to the number of fish that would be left in the Lake at the terrific rate they were being pulled out. No one was alarmed but several fishermen felt that the "big uns" were mostly all gone by the end of the week.

Stuart Condon is doing his best to raise money for Boy Scout camping equipment. The free show that was sponsored by the Olympic Theater to raise money through donations for this equipment fell somewhat short. Now the field is wide open for any suggestion for raising the rest of the money needed for the equipment. Anyone who has an idea about how the money could be raised should get in touch with Stuart Condon, either by letter or telephone.

Our chirps of wisdom open with a good philosophy for living. This chirp is, it's better to appreciate things you cannot have rather than to have things which you cannot appreciate.

Today's medicine cabinet is a miniature home drug store minus the sandwich department.

Never be envious of the happiness that exists in a fool's paradise because only a fool believes it is happiness.

One of the quotations from Robert E. Lee is still applicable. It is, "Never do a wrong thing to make a friend or to keep one."

Experience is not what happens to you, it's what you do with what happens to you.

The student in the newslight this week is 20 year old Don Booth who came to Canyon from Floydada. Don is a Math major at West Texas State. He is a first semester senior, six feet tall, and weighs 162 pounds. The six foot blonde senior is a member of Tri Tau fraternity.

Last year Don was active on the boxing team. This year he coached some of the Canyon boys in boxing. These boxers were entered in two tournaments; one at Plainview and one at Amarillo Golden Gloves. In these two tournaments the boys competed in eight competitive bouts. The boxing team was sponsored by the local Lions Club.

Don, who would like a teaching job for the first few years after graduation if the draft doesn't get him, believes West Texas State is building an excellent name for itself. He says that he would like a teaching job that carries some athletic coaching on the side. It is his belief that West Texas State is meeting the needs of the students in this area adequately.

Don was also one of the active members of Tri Tau fraternity who arranged a basketball game between the WTSC faculty and members of the Lions Club. The proceeds of the game went to the Buffalo Gal's brick fund for construction of the college's new student center.

Lions Hear of Insect Menace To Wheat Crops

Dr. Dan Ashdown, currently with the Pan Tech Farm, spoke on insecticides and insects in wheat at the Lions Club Wednesday. The program was arranged by Dr. M. R. Callihan, chairman of the Lions Club agriculture committee.

Ashdown, who has his Ph.D. from Cornell University and was a member of the faculty at Oklahoma University until recently, said that this year's wheat damage by greenbugs was comparatively small. He stated that all greenbugs are of the female variety and that they have numerous enemies. One of the main man-made enemies of greenbugs mentioned by Dr. Ashdown was parathion, a poisonous chemical.

The speaker said that each section of land contained approximately 50,000,000 insects of various kinds. Greenbugs, he said, have a tremendous rate of reproduction. This species of insect begins reproducing when only eight days old. Although greenbugs often threaten the wheat crop, Ashdown contends that spiders have done more damage this year than greenbugs.

In fact, the speaker said that greenbugs were in third place as far as damage was concerned among wheat crops this year. Wheat mites have done more damage than either of the other two groups.

The insect menace is being carefully watched and studied, and everything possible is being done to keep damage from this source at a minimum, Ashdown pointed out.

The Lions also presented Houston and Frances Bright a Sunbeam Mixmaster. Houston and Frances gave a great deal of their time and talents in conducting the musical numbers of the recent Lions Club Minstrel show.

Eight guests were present at the luncheon. The one out of town visitor was Floyd Moore of Happy; the others were Victor Hill, Shiffield, R. C. Busted, L. S. Johnston, J. P. Taylor, Charles Gerald and Woody Hicks of Canyon.

HAPPY MUSIC CLUB HAS CLOSING LUNCHEON FRIDAY

The Happy Music Club met Friday, May 16, for a closing luncheon in the home of Mrs. Anna Bee Robinson with Mrs. Willa Elliot and Denzil Townsend as co-hostesses.

Members present were Mesdames Myra Nell Culp, Margaret Finley, Ella Hext, Ona Holland, Ruth Maynard, Mary Jane Miller, Rosetta Miller, Lucy Moudy, Kate McManigal, Fern Patching, Anna Bee Robinson, Genora Taylor, LaNelle Todd, Mary Del Toles, Denzil Townsend, Royce Vernon, Merle White, Hallie Whitlow, Willa Elliot, Ruth Holiday, and a new member, Mrs. Mary Harman.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS MET LAST WEDNESDAY

A letter was read from a retiring missionary in Manila. Mrs. Lily Foster furnished a story hour and song service.

The club is happy to report that their teacher, Miss Mary M. Richardson, is improving from an illness.

Edna Graham Ends Fifty Years Of Teaching Service in June

Edna Graham, after 33 years of teaching math at WT, looks upon her students as jewels and she says that she plans to sit back and watch her "jewels" sparkle when she retires at the end of this semester.

Miss Graham has taught 50 years in state schools and six months at Baylor College. She graduated from Sam Houston State Teachers College in 1902 and attended the University of Chicago in 1916 and Colorado University in 1922. She has also done graduate work in the University of Southern California, Colorado University, University of Tennessee, Duke University and the University of California at Berkeley.

Since coming to WT in 1919 Miss Graham, besides her teaching duties, has been a member of the Welfare Committee, served as Dean of Women, sponsor of Gamma Phi Sorority, chairman of the Student Honors Committee, member of Delta Kappa Gamma and president of the Pi Chapter, sponsor of Alpha Chi from 1922 to 1940 and she served as national president of Alpha Chi one year. She is an active member of the Baptist Church.

She received the state achievement award for Delta Kappa Gamma and is responsible for the Edna Graham Scholarship Award at WT. She was also responsible for an award of $700 given by Delta Kappa Gamma to Orline Clinkscales, who attended the University of Texas on the scholarship.

Miss Graham is proud of her ex-students and maintains close ties with them. Among her math majors have been Dr. John Randolph, Head of the Math Department at Rochester University; Dr. Emmett Hazelwood, Head of the Math Department at Texas Tech; Gordon Fuller, who teaches graduate work in Math at Texas Tech; Marvin McCuan, Head of the Math Department at Amarillo College; Dr. Lorraine Bruce, who teaches Math at Amarillo College; Dr. L. W. Blau, editor of the Humble Oil Company journal; Dr. Jim Webb of North Texas State College; Madge Childre who teaches Math at Albuquerque High School; and Alma Hall of Amarillo High School.

Travel is one of the major hobbies of Miss Graham. "I plan to go to Australia as soon as arrangements can be made, which will possibly be the middle of next winter," she states. In 1926 she made a tour of eleven European countries and England, Scotland, the Holy Land and Egypt. In a trip around the world in 1935 she visited 22 foreign countries. She toured six South American countries in 1938 and the following year, Alaska. Her most recent trip was to Canada in 1950. The United States has not been neglected in her travels since she has seen almost every part of it.

She has many other hobbies, which include football and basketball. She has missed very few of the WT games in the 33 years she has been here. Needlepoint is another of her pastimes and she takes it to most faculty meetings and ballgames. She enjoys gardening, cooking, playing bridge and reading. She is always interested in taking advanced courses and she attended Colorado University the summer of 1950 to do more work in Math.

A tea was held Saturday afternoon, May 10, from 3 to 6 at the President's home in Miss Graham's honor. The tea was given by Dr. Ima Barlow, May Simmons, Gladys

Several thousand socks and neckties are being wrapped and unwrapped this week. Gallons of cologne, and bushels of costume jewelry are passing through the same routine as friends and relatives pay tribute to high school graduates.

It would seem that so simple a custom as that of giving graduation presents might have remained intact in spite of changing times. For the men, this may be true. But for the ladies, not at all.

In our day, for instance, the accepted gift for the sweet girl graduate was a "boudoir cap" or a "camisole."

The boudoir cap, a great favorite, was a concoction of ribbon and lace, supposed to make one look alluring even when wearing "kid curlers" or having her hair rolled up on rags. Most of the girls of our generation were taught never to appear "before folks" in anything so informal as a housecoat, consequently these little jobs were highly useless. We got several, but the one we remember was a pink taffeta number built out into a dutch cap effect by means of hat wire. Its design was entirely independent of the shape of the head, so it was impossible to achieve anything remotely resembling a charming effect. We hung on to the thing for years, however, thinking surely anything so pretty would some day come into its own.

The camisole, a kind of glorified corset cover, was usually a masterpiece of beflowered silk, lace and french knots.

How to spot an expert

An expert makes hard work easier.

When it comes to hauling, a GMC truck is your expert — for this very sound reason:

GMC — as the world's largest exclusive manufacturer of commercial vehicles — concerns itself 100% with the development of new and better ways to transport goods.

Each model is the careful answer to specific, tough hauling problems.

The new GMC "302" engine is a case in point. In addition to being America's highest-compression standard gasoline truck engine—it packs more horsepower for its weight than any other on the road! The result is savings in useless "dead weight" by as much as 500 pounds over other engines of equal horsepower.

It's this kind of expert engineering that makes us sure of one thing: whatever model you select at our showroom — panel or pickup, stake rack or platform—you'll have an expert on your next job!

THE AMERICAN WAY

No Wonder!

OUT NOT IN

The owner of a corner saloon was sleeping peacefully at 3 o'clock in the morning when his phone rang. "What time does your saloon open?"

"Eleven o'clock," growled the saloonkeeper, slamming down the phone.

A minute later the phone rang again. The same voice asked: "What time did you say your saloon opened?"

"Eleven o'clock, damn it," roared the owner, "and you won't get in a minute before."

"Who wants to get in?" asked a very hurt voice. "I want to get out."

FLATTERY FAILS

They were discussing girls. "How is it, Jack," asked Joe, "that you get on so well with the girls?"

"Easy," was the reply. "Try flattery. For instance, the girl I was with last night got a fly in her eye. I said, 'I can't see how it could miss such big eyes as yours.' After that I had her eating out of my hand."

A few days later they met again. "H'm," said Joe, "I don't think much of your flattery stunt. I tried it, but it didn't come off."

"What happened?"

"The girl I was with got a fly in her mouth."

LONG TIME

Doctor: "I advise you to take a hot bath before retiring."

Patient: "Before retiring? But I won't be retiring for another ten years."

VERY EXPENSIVE

Son: "Papa, how much does it cost to get married?"

Papa: "There's a two - dollar down payment and then you pay your entire salary every week for the rest of your life."

Most people are careless in their expressions of thanks for gifts. Of course, they say "Thank you" to every person from whom they receive a gift if they happen to run across that person. That should be done, but there is more to it than that.

For every gift received there should be a letter of thanks. It is rude not to acknowledge each gift with an intimate, friendly note in which the gift is specifically mentioned.

Most of the pleasure of giving gifts is hearing and feeling the gratitude of the one we favored. When anyone is kind enough to think of you to the extent that they send you a gift, there cannot possibly be any reason why you should not take the brief moment necessary to give them the pleasure of a letter.

It does not matter if the gift was received from someone you see dozens of times a week. The letter should be written and sent just the same. It will give its recipient as much pleasure as if they saw you only rarely.

Band Scholarships Awarded Students

Canyon High School Band members have another challenge! Each year the band sends three outstanding musicians to the Summer Music Recreation Camp on scholarships. J. T. Maddux, Dorothy Cleavinger, and Joann Mickey are the three students to be sent this year, August 10 through 23rd.

The scholarships are $12 and pays for the tuition only. This does not include room and board. Money for these scholarships will be taken from the band fund. Total cost for the two-week camp is $38.

Summer Music Recreation Camp is the music department of Western State of Colorado at Gunnison. The camp is the second largest summer music camp in the United States. Directors and instructors of the camp are nationally known.

Camp participation is not limited to instrumental artists alone, but vocalists may also attend.

Participants are not limited to high school students. High school graduates and music instructors may receive college credit. Approximately 600 teachers and students attend the camp each year.

Alternates for the scholarships are Bob Huddleston and Len McKay. Other CHS students attending this summer are Ann Ford, Ralph Green, Harold Newberry, Norris Samuelson, David Miller, and Al Myers.

Registration and withdrawals end August 5. If any member of the high school band or choir would like to attend, please see Mr. Herman Demus or Miss Ada V. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Demus will accompany the group to Gunnison and attend the camp.

Sophomores Plan Party

A costume party was planned in a recent sophomore class meeting. The party will be held Thursday, May 22, in the high school cafeteria.

Staff Dedicates Annual to Gilmore

As a tribute to the untiring instruction and helpfulness of Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore, CHS Librarian and sponsor of the "Soaring Wings," the annual staff dedicates the '52 edition of the yearbook to their sponsor.

The publication of the high school annual has been under the direction of Mrs. Gilmore for nine years. In addition to sponsoring "The Soaring Wings," Mrs. Gilmore has taught English, history, and Spanish. She also sponsored the publication of the school paper, "The Eagle's Tale," for seven years.

Mrs. Gilmore graduated from West Texas State College. In her leisure time she finds a great deal of pleasure in raising a garden of flowers or reading a good book.

The annual staff regards her as "an understanding and inspirational person, and a guiding light to those who know her."

Mrs. Gilmore has membership in the Order of the Eastern Star, American Association of University Women, Texas Library Association, and Classroom Teachers Association.

Orientation Held For Future Fish

Students of CHS welcomed their future classmates May 14 and 15. Eighth grade students of West Texas Elementary School visited the high school for freshman orientation.

Members of the SFC showed the students through the building and teachers spoke to them on subjects they may take next year.

J. E. Miller welcomed the group to CHS and discussed the student handbook and the choice of subjects with them. John Miller, vice-president of SFC, spoke on "How to get the most out of high school."

Opportunities in English, science, agriculture, homemaking and mathematics were explained by Mrs. Joe Findley, Jack Barnett, T. L. Devin, Mrs. Nadine Lyles and Mrs. A. K. Knott respectively.

Autograph Party Honors Students

Honoring 21 National Honor Society probationary members was an annual autographing party given by the organization Tuesday, May 20.

After signing and writing in each other's yearbooks, the students participated in various games before enjoying refreshing refreshments. Mrs. A. K. Knott and an appointed committee, consisting of John Miller, Sarah Colwell, Lawrence Hermesmeier, Leroy Dickerson, and Elvira Boyd, planned and supervised the social.

Editors Prepare 1952 Yearbook

Initiative, patience, artistic ability, and the love of detail are the attributes of any successful staff member of an annual.

The Soaring Wings staff this year consisted of six girls. Each one had her own responsibility; however, due to the small number on the staff, cooperation was necessary.

Bette McGehee, editor-in-chief, had varied responsibilities. Her responsibilities included the supervision of the production of pages so that they would be similar, planning the dummy, and supervision of the shipment of pages to Austin.

Barbara Beck was associate editor. Her main duty as assisting editor was helping Bette. Anna Lou Samuelson served as art editor and "saw that the pages were artistic."

Janie Jennings, in serving as copy reader, read all the copy written to see that all was correct. Elaine Cundiff, as photography editor, was in charge of arrangement and supervision of photography.

Filling the capacity of business manager was Joyce Keller. This is one of the most difficult duties of any staff. The manager was in complete charge of advertisements, correspondence, and payment of bills.

Staff Presents 52 Achievements

Composed of eight members the Eagle's Tale staff, for the past year, has notably gathered and presented as accurate and authentic news as they were capable of accomplishing. To publish a paper the students of Canyon High School will enjoy has been the staff's foremost objective.

Not confining their activities to publishing The Eagle's Tale, the staff also planned the crowning ceremonies for the school Carnival Queen. Students of the "Soaring Wings" personnel conducted and supervised this annual contest for the selection of the Carnival Queen for the 1951-52 term.

In classroom discussions and panel forums these journalism students studied how to critically judge a newspaper for its accuracy, dependability, and fairness. Studying the world problem of freedom of the press encouraged the future journalists to be alert to fight for the continuance of this privilege.

Highlight of the season for the group falls on the Panhandle High School Press Association held at West Texas State College. At this convention, Sarah Jane Colwell, second semester editor, was elected secretary of the PHSPA for the coming year.

Carol Rose, feature editor, won first place in editorial writing and was presented with an individual trophy and a certificate of award for outstanding achievement in the field of high school journalism. Ralph Green was candidate for the Dorinda E. Bond award.

Representing Canyon in the Regional Interscholastic League meet at Lubbock was Carol and Ralph. At this contest Carol won first place in copyreading.

Staff Says 'Thanks' To Erwin, Colwell

As our year comes to a close, The Eagle's Tale staff wishes to express its deepest appreciation to Shirley Erwin and Sarah Jane Colwell, two of the most reliable editors a staff could have.

When we felt depressed, as though we could not write another story, who was there to urge us and give us a few helpful hints? Shirley and Sarah Jane were always at our rescue.

Besides copyreading, making out the dummy, rewriting someone's story, and trying to meet the press deadline, they also had their own stories to cover.

Many hours have been spent during school and after school hours by our editors trying to put out a paper that all the school will enjoy and be proud of.

Thanks also goes to the assistant editors, Ralph Green and Lou Yarbrough, for stepping in and filling the editor's position when he was absent.

When asked what a good editor consisted of, Miss Alice Payne, sponsor, "The effective editor is dependable, resourceful, and cooperative. Our editors and assistant editors this year have had these qualities."

We are proud of our editors and assistant editors, and again we say Thanks for Everything!

Ole Cal really enjoyed that all-school picnic Friday and he hopes that all of you kids had gods of fun also. He is also very glad that no one received any serious injury during the day. Cal enjoyed the baseball but feels that Miller's home runs ought to be outlawed.

What he doesn't enjoy was the sunburn he got. He can't understand how so many kids did get sunburned when the sun was behind the clouds all the time.

Cal's learnin':

This is one student's version of the seniors:

 We're finally gettin' 'em

Congratulations graduating seniors of CHS, 1952! What a difference in the green, embryonic freshmen of four years ago and the distinguished, erudite scholars they are today! Cal will be there to see everyone of you get your sheepskins!

Cal hopes you seniors had fun on your trip. He would have liked to have gone but Mamaracho was sick and he just felt that he had to stay and take care of his horse.

Those receiving pins are: Ed Harrell, Frances Cunningham, Lawrence Hermesmeier, Leroy Dickerson, Barbara Glanton, Jimmy Cornette, Dorothy Cleavinger, Virgil Martin, and Carletta Phelps. Others in this society may order pins, but it will not be possible to get them back before school is out, since this order is already sent.

Four Cheerleaders Are Elected for '53

"We've Got The T-E-A-M, TEAM! TEAM! TEAM! TEAM!"

Yes, this and many other spirited cheers will be resounded in the football stadium next fall as the four newly elected cheerleaders, Peggy Bonds, Sarah Colwell, Tysene Cox, and Laura Smith lead the student body in songs and yells.

Seventeen students tried out for the cheerleading position and nine were eliminated May 5. The student body elected the cheerleaders by secret ballot after the final try-outs of the eight participants.

Peggy and Sarah were cheerleaders of '52 and will be classified as seniors next year with Laura and Tysene.

Reporting on a high school paper does not stop at 3:30 on Friday afternoon. The high school journalist finds more and more that he must be continually on the go for the coverage of ball games, parties, and trips. The paper in advance must be carefully planned by editor Sarah Colwell, with her associate editor, Lou Yarbrough. The editor works extensively with the sponsor and principal on school incidents of interest.

Columns of every kind must meet a deadline in order for the preparation of additional copy to be ready for the printer.

Up-to-the-minute sports stories must have a definite place in the make-up of the dummy, according to their importance.

Straight news stories relating timely information on the school's activities requests expert coverage from the reporter and must be limited as to space. Follow-up stories on the preceding ones must be carefully and briefly written.

The good feature story in a high school paper is extremely informative to those who read it. It conveys the exciting, adventurous characteristics about any person, his hobbies, or just a school activity.

Exchange copies must be folded and addressed, ready to be sent off each week. Correspondence concerning cuts and other business must be carried on efficiently, and an accurate account of each letter is filed for future or later reference.

To copyread his own story is one of the additional jobs of each staff member. Proofreading the galley-proof is done by Lou Yarbrough each week.

An account of stories written by the student must be kept in his journalistic notebook.

Ralph Green, sports editor, ranks first with the highest number of inches with 300. Carol Rose, feature editor, captures second place in the total number of printed inches.

Since the first edition, The Eagle's Tale has continued to give students the same outstanding news: sports, grade school news, features, columns, news, and pictures of the outstanding students.

In the 1932 edition, the weekly carried the words of the new school song, which was adopted in that year. In 1943, Manus Foster won in the PHSPA Individual Story Contest. His sports story won "best sports story" award.

"The Eagles Win State" was the most appealing headline in the 1950 edition.

One of the first editions of the 1951 Eagle's Tale carried the words of the new CHS Fight Song, Houston Bright is composer of the song.

1952! Outstanding stories in the 1952 edition were sports, FFA, and journalism. Ray Burrus set a new state record in discus. Carol Rose won first in the PHSPA Individual Story Contests with her editorial, "Faith." Carol also won first in the copyreading contest at Lubbock. The FFA team won district, regional, and went to state.

What could we do without our school paper?

First WT Operetta A Success; Plays To Two Capacity Crowds

"The Pinafore" sailed right into the hearts of the audience Tuesday and Wednesday night when "H. M. S. Pinafore" was presented in the Education Auditorium. This was the first attempt of any operatic production to ever be tried on WT's campus.

The whole production was termed as a success, as the audience voiced their approval by hearty applause. The songs, dialogue, comedy, and all were teamed into one of the greatest productions of the campus and all will look forward to the following productions to be given in the future.

Peggy Williams, as Josephine and Joe Coleman as Ralph, played their parts very convincingly as the two confused lovers. The solos and duets by these two were very much enjoyed by the audience.

John Butler as Sir Joseph Porter K. C. B. was definitely an added attraction to the operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan. With the comedy and the songs, both Butler and James Gamblin, playing the part of Dick Deadeye, won the hearts of the audience.

Holmes Ambrose as Captain Corcoran presented his first operatic appearance on the WT stage and charmed the audience with his lively and very comical portrayals.

Many other characters went in to making this production a success. The chorus was especially good as well as the orchestra. The scenery designed by Beth Blankenship and Jerry Freese of the WT

Art department added greatly to the make-up and costumes... all went together to term this production a success.

Special recognition should be given to Holmes Ambrose, Houston Bright, W. A. Moore, Wendell Cain, and William O. Latson who added their talents to the operetta. Many will be left out of this review as far as names will go, but as far as those who saw the production, a special "thank you" should go to all those who worked long and hard to bring "H. M. S. Pinafore" to the campus.

ROBERT'S WELDING

Texas has had its share of drought this year—especially West Texas—with the attendant losses, fretting, and cussing by the farmers and ranchers. But the chances are that in future years drought won't pose as much of a problem.

At least there is hope that man—using his brain to benefit man instead of thinking up better ways to eliminate him—can lick the drought problem. You're right; it sounds like a job for a rainmaker—and that's exactly what it is. But the procedure of cloud seeding isn't quite as simple as some accounts have led us to believe. That's what W. J. Douglas, an expert on such matters, said recently, here in the capitol city.

Douglas is regional meteorologist for Irving P. Krick Inc. of Texas. His business is to increase rain, and he says that a tremendous interest in artificial rain increasing is building up in the Lone Star state.

Briefly, as explained by an expert, here's how the rainmaking operation works:

First of all, a "preoperational" job is done. This means that the weather and economy of the area to be showered is studied carefully. Sometimes such study extends back in time as far as ten years. Then, after it has been decided that seeding clouds would be practical over that area, the scientists wait for a thunderstorm and seed the clouds with ground generators.

"We can't make rain where there are no clouds," said Douglas. "But we can increase rain."

To do this job of increasing rain, the scientists use particles of silver iodide. It's done like this: Small pieces of foundry coke are soaked in a liquid solution of silver iodide. Then the pieces of coke are put into a fiery crucible equipped with a blower and heated to a temperature of between 2500 and 3000 degrees Fahrenheit. At that temperature, said Douglas, silver iodide is expelled from the generator in the form of gas.

As soon as the gas hits the cold upper air it is transformed into billions and billions of tiny particles of solid silver iodide crystals. Thus, there are "seeds" about which the raindrops may form—for every raindrop that falls from the clouds, whether artificial raindrops or not, has been formed around a tiny particle of solid substance. Because silver iodide functions at higher temperatures than natural particles, it is able to wring more water out of clouds than would naturally fall.

Right now in Texas there are approximately 60 stations or posts where generators are located. But even generators in New Mexico, Colorado, and other states may benefit Texas, for a huge area is needed for practical operations.

"The smallest possible size for effective work," said Douglas, "is about three counties. And that's just barely big enough."

Most areas which want to investigate artificial rain-increasing form non-profit corporations, working out within the group such matters as how much each member must pay for subscription, and the group as a whole contacts a rainmaking organization.

New Type Final Examination Is Tried at WTSC

Time brings changes both in school and business and one of the changes that is being made at West Texas State College by some instructors is the method of giving the final examination. The present trend is one of getting away from the old straight-laced form of final examinations by giving a more comprehensive assignment in the form of a report.

Emmitt D. Smith, associate professor of Education, is one of the instructors who are participating in this type of experimental program. The final examination in Smith's sophomore Education class was in the form of two evaluative reports. One report was written and the other was oral.

"Work in the class has been a little different from the ordinary assignment and recitation method," Smith said. Students have worked on the evaluation of one high school program. They are divided into groups or committees and they work on specific programs related to the high school program.

The class recently took an evaluative field trip to Tulia where a planned observation of the Tulia High School was conducted.

In 1951, 290,660 pedestrians were injured in U. S. traffic accidents.

26 Cub Scouts Attend Palava

Cub Scout Pack 31 of Canyon attended the Palava of the Llano Estacado Council of Cub Scouts all day Saturday, May 10. Dudley Bayne, one of the Cub Scout's adult workers, said about 18 parents and friends were also present with the 26 Cub Scouts.

The Palava is an annual field day observed by Cub Scouts. Various Packs compete in sports and games. After the contests were finished the Scouts and guests enjoyed a delicious picnic lunch. The Palava was conducted in Elwood Park in Amarillo.
